Harry is just an idle roomer, and wakes up from a dream in which he was in the Sultan's harem. His life is made up of living in a small hall-room and cooking his meals in there against the landlady's orders.

Harry's little scheme makes it easy for him to cook his meals in his room - and get away with it. He has the stove in the phonograph, and when the landlady knocks at the door he just starts the music - and gets away with it.

He is in love with one of the boarder's daughter - and his rival tries to get revenge on him and puts dynamite in the pancake flour. This sends them all to the sanitarium, but eventually Harry wins the girl.
